

Please do NOT limit XM's ability to provide the best possilbe programming to it's customers. Instant traffic and weather is a great idea and XM deserves the right to broadcast it. Our nation is built on people having great ideas and running with them. XM is the best radio service out there and is getting better everyday. If local broadcasters want to keep their listeners they should have better programming and less commericals.